General Information

Historical Sketch of Lewisburg College

Louisburg College, the co-educational junior college of the North Carolina Methodist Conference, has evolved from three earlier institutions: Franklin Academy, which functioned under legislative charters of 1787 and 1802; Louisburg Female Academy, which operated from 1813 to 1857; and Louisburg Female College, the name under which the institution was known until 1931.

Franklin Academy

Franklin Academy was first chartered in 1787 by act of the Legislature of North Carolina. Doctor John King, William Lancaster, Josiah Love, Benjamin Seawell, Robert Goodlow, Robert Bell, Jordan Hill, Francis Taylor, Hugh Hayes, William Green, Thomas Stokes, and Dr. William Varell were thereby appointed trustees "for the purpose of erecting an Academy in the town of Lewisburg . . . by the name of Franklin Academy" and to provide "towards paying for the house already contracted for." Of the early years of this institution little is known. Documentary evidence is, however, abundant for 1802, the date of the second charter, and beyond. The trustees were now: John Hunt, Francis Taylor, Epps Moody, John Haywood, Joshua Perry, Archibald Davis, William Lancaster, Jeremiah Perry, Jr., Richard Fenner, George Tunstall, Green Hill, William Green, Alexander Falconer, William Williams, Jr., and Major Jeremiah Perry.

The Academy was opened on January 1, 1805, under the direction of Matthew Dickinson of Somers, Connecticut, a graduate of Yale College, and maternal uncle of the eminent Field brothers, David Dudley, Cyrus W., Stephen Johnson, and Henry Martyn. A Connecticut visitor in 1808 described the Academy as being a "pleasant building on the hill," and noted in his diary Dickinson's observation that "literature is much respected in these parts and literary men revered." The annual enrollment during the years of his guidance was over seventy—at one time twenty students even came from the University of North Carolina. Two courses of instruction were offered. The first consisted of Reading, Writing, Arithmetic, English, Grammar, Geography, Belles Letters, and Rhetoric; and the second embraced: "Ethics and Metaphysics, the Latin, Greek, Hebrew, French, and Italian Languages, and the higher branches of Metaphysics and Philosophy, viz.: Algebra, Geometry, Trigonometry, Conic Sections, Altimetry, Longimetry, Mensuration of Superficies and Solids, Surveying, Navigation, Natural Philosophy, and Astronomy." To aid in teaching this formidable array, Mr. Davis H. Mayhew, a graduate of Williams College, Massachusetts, was engaged as assistant teacher. The trustees announced, in 1810, the establishment of a "handsome library." Dickinson severed his connections with the Academy at the end of 1808 and began to practice law. He was succeeded by Davis H. Mayhew, who served 1809-1816, with the exception of 1810, when Dr. James Bogle was in charge. The institution, later known as the Louisburg Male Academy, continued under various principals* down to the opening years of the present century.

Louisburg Female Academy

In 1813 began the second stage in the evolution of Louisburg College, when a Female Department was added to Franklin Academy. Here young ladies were to be instructed, so the opening announcement read, in "Reading, Writing, English Grammar, Arithmetic, Geography, Astronomy, Painting, and Music; also useful and Ornamental Needle Work of almost every description." A legislative document of the following year, "An act to incorporate the Trustees of the Louisburg Female Academy, and for other purposes," named as trustees John D. Hawkins, Green Hill, Jr., Jesse Person, Robert A. Taylor, William Murphey, Benjamin F. Hawkins, Jordan Hill, Nathan Patterson, Richard Fenner, Richard Inge, Joel King, and Alexander Falkner; and provided for the deeding to the Academy of any of the unappropriated town lands. The original building for this school, erected in 1814, was described by the commissioners, in inviting bids for construction, as "30 by 20 feet, 2 stories—11 and 9 feet pitch—two rooms above, 18 by 20 and 12 by 20 feet—three 6-paneled doors—four 18 and four 8 light windows below, and six 15 and four 8 light windows above—to be built of good hard timber—with two chimneys of brick or hewn stone, and underpinned with the same—to be ceiled within and painted without."

* The successive principals were, 1816-1845: John B. Bobbitt (University of North Carolina), 1816-1820: Fitch Wheeler (Yale), 1821-1822: George Perry, 1823: Addison H. White (Yale), 1824-1825: Elijah Brewer (Yale), 1826-1827: Charles A. Hill (University of North Carolina), 1828-1830: John B. Bobbitt, second term 1831-1845.

The new building completed, Miss Harriet Partridge, "a lady from Massachusetts, eminently qualified," became the "preceptress." The early records reveal that by 1817 there was an average enrollment of seventy-five, that the preceptress received an annual salary of five hundred dollars, and that gross receipts from tuition were over fifteen hundred dollars. Miss Partridge was assisted by a Mr. John Lataste, a person distinguished, according to the official advertisement, by his "universally acknowledged qualifications in teaching music upon the Forte Piano, as well as his graceful and elegant manner of teaching dancing." In 1821 Miss Ann Benedict of "Connecticut and New York" succeeded to the headship and she was replaced in 1824 by Miss Mary Ramsey, of "New York." In 1831, Miss Partridge, now Mrs. John B. Bobbitt, returned and continued in her position until 1843. The records show that Latin and French had been added to the curriculum by 1838 and instruction in the guitar and other instruments instituted. From 1843 to 1856 Asher H. Ray and Jane A. Ray were the principals. A circular for 1851 reveals that they were assisted by three teachers and that the Academy now styled itself a "Seminary." By the time the old institution developed into a college in 1857, it had educated hundreds of girls from all sections of eastern North Carolina.

Louisburg Female College

Responding, in 1855, to the need for higher education of women, the Louisburg Female College Company was organized as a joint-stock enterprise to begin the work of converting the Academy into a College. By a legislative act the company acquired interests in the Academy ground, moved the Academy buildings to another part of the property, and constructed a four-story brick building in the style of the Greek Revival. Instruction was begun in the fall of 1857 under the presidency of Mr. James P. Nelson, of Maryland. He was succeeded two years later by Mr. Columbus Andrews, who presided until 1861. During the Civil War the institution was under Mr. James Southgate until it was forced to close in 1865. It was reopened in January, 1866, by Dr. T. M. Jones, who removed Greensboro Female College to the building, three years after the latter institution had been destroyed by fire. The Reverend Dr. F. L. Reid became president in 1877. The following year the College was forced to close its doors, and for the next eleven years the buildings were variously used as a high school and as a private residence. A resurgence of interest, although it was hindered by the general poverty of the town and state during the Reconstruction period, resulted in the re-opening of the College with an enrollment of around 100, under Mr. S. D. Bagley, in 1889. He was assisted by eight teachers. A preparatory department was conducted in the old Academy building. The Reverend J. A. Green was president from 1894-1896. He was succeeded by Mr. Matthew S. Davis, who had previously been principal of the Male Academy, and who held office until his death in 1906, when he was succeeded by his daughter, Mrs. Ivey Allen.

During these latter years the College had been run under the care of the Methodist Church, although the Church had given nothing to its support, and in theory it had continued to belong to the stock company. But by virtue of money he had lent to the institution Mr. Washington Duke, the Durham philanthropist, had by 1891 become the real owner. In 1907, upon Mr. Duke's death, his son, Mr. Benjamin N. Duke, presented the property in fee simple, to the North Carolina Conference of the Southern Methodist Church.

Louisburg College

In 1911 the three-story Davis Building was erected to memorialize the service of the Davis family to the institution. In 1915, under the presidency of Mrs. Allen, the college was re-organized with junior-college rating. From 1917 to 1920, the Reverend F. S. Love was president. He was followed, in the years 1921 and 1922 by the Reverend L. S. Massey.

Under the presidency of A. W. Mohn the years 1922 to 1929 were a period of building expansion. During this period the West Wing, the Pattie Julia Wright Dormitory, and the Franklin County Building were erected.

In 1928 disastrous fires destroyed the old Academy Building and gutted the main floors of West Wing and the Administration Building. When the Reverend C. C. Alexander became president in 1929, the college was burdened with a debt of two hundred thousand dollars in a time of depression and shrinking enrollment.

The college as it stands today is a memorial to the heroic efforts of Dr. A. D. Wilcox, 1931 to 1936; Dr. D. E. Earnhardt, 1936 to 1939; and Dr. Walter Patten, 1939 to 1947. These three presidents kept the college in existence, and their efforts, crowned by the great work of the late Dr. Patten, resulted in the clearing of the college debt. Samuel M. Holton became president in 1947.

Location

Louisburg College is located at Louisburg, Franklin County, in the eastern part of North Carolina, about thirty miles northeast of Raleigh, the state capital. Hard-surfaced highways extend in almost every direction from the town of Louisburg and the city is accessible to all parts of the State. The college is located on the highest peak of the town and a fine view of a goodly portion of the Tar River valley may be seen from the college buildings. Louisburg has the advantage of possessing a minimum of noise, excitement and distracting influences of the large city, yet has rapid and convenient transportation to the cities when the occasion demands.

Accreditation

Louisburg College, a Standard Junior College, is accredited by the North Carolina State Department of Education. The College is a member of the North Carolina College Conference and of the American Association of Junior Colleges.

The Summer School

In order to afford students the opportunity of earning credits on their college course and of making up deficiencies, a five-weeks summer session is operated by the College. Prospective summer-school students should write to the President of the College for information.

Buildings and Grounds

Campus

The campus of the college is a plot of approximately twelve acres containing a beautiful oak grove, modern college buildings, driveways, lawns, tennis courts, and a large athletic field back of the buildings.

College Buildings

There are six buildings on the college campus used for educational purposes: the Administration Building, the Davis Memorial Building, the West Wing of the Administration Building, the Pattie Julia Wright Memorial Dormitory, the Franklin County Building, and the Cafeteria. Construction of a modern gymnasium is planned to begin in the Spring of 1948, and it is hoped to have the building ready for use in the 1948-1949 session.

In addition to these buildings, the college owns the president's home which is located on the campus, and a farm consisting of one hundred and eighty acres of land located four miles from Louisburg.

On the back campus there have been placed two housing units for veterans and twenty house trailers, gifts from the War Assets Administration.

Administration Building (Old Main)

This is a four story brick building erected in 1855. Here are located the administration offices, the social halls, and the post office.

Davis Memorial Building

Erected in 1913 as a memorial to Matthew S. Davis, who was for many years president of the college, Davis Building provides dormitory facilities on the second and third floors and lecture rooms on the first floor. Also located on the first floor are the book store and college shop.

West Wing, Administration Building

This wing was erected in 1924 and contains the dining hall, kitchen and pantries on the first floor, chapel on the second floor, and dormitory rooms on the third floor.

In 1943, the Burney rooms were completed on the fourth floor. In 1946, sixteen additional rooms were added, to utilize all the available dormitory space.

Pattie Julia Wright Memorial Dormitory

This dormitory is the gift of Mr. R. H. Wright of Durham, North Carolina, in memory of his sister, Pattie Julia Wright, who was a member of the class of 1868. This dormitory accommodates one hundred and sixteen young women.

There is a social and reading room on the first floor.

Franklin County Building

In appreciation for the more than one hundred and fifty years of service rendered to the community by the college, the people of the county donated the money for the erection of this edifice. It contains science laboratories, and provides large comfortable lecture rooms on two floors. The second and third floors contain forty-four dormitory rooms.

Library

The library consists of three commodious rooms equipped for study and reading. The books on open shelves are classified according to the Dewey Decimal system of classification, with a card catalogue. The library contains a collection of approximately 7,000 bound volumes. Received currently are 74 magazines and the leading national, state and county papers. A trained librarian has full charge and, with the assistance of several students, keeps the library open from 8 o'clock in the morning to 9:45 at night. Fluorescent lights add to the comfort in studying.

Laboratories

The chemistry laboratory occupies a large room on the first floor of Franklin Building. It is equipped with Pyrofax gas for Bunsen burners and individual apparatus for work in general, analytic, and organic chemistry. There are several sets of balances, including analytical, and a blast burner for glass working.

The botany and zoology laboratories occupy space on the first floor of Davis Building. The equipment includes individual apparatus for dissection, models, microprojector, lantern slide projector, and an ample number of microscopes.

The laboratory for physics is being adequately equipped.

Infirmarys

The infirmary for girls is located on the second floor of Davis Building. In connection with it, there is a waiting room, an office for the college nurse, living quarters for the nurse and her assistant, a veranda for sunlight, an adjoining bath, and a supply room. This infirmary is equipped to prepare the necessary diet for those students who need special care.

The men's infirmary is on the third floor of the Administration Building.

President's Home

The President's home is an eight-room house, modernly equipped. It stands on the campus grounds, only a few yards from the college buildings; it is easily accessible and brings the family into a unity with the college life.

Farm

The college farm, which has been known as the Macon Place, consists of one hundred and eighty acres and is four miles from Louisburg on the Henderson highway. This land not only gives any agricultural students much valuable training in a practical way, but it also furnishes the college with a portion of its farm and dairy products.

Campus Life

Home Life

Louisburg College imparts an atmosphere which is possible only in small institutions where there is constant personal contact between the teachers and students. This relationship brings a feeling of personal responsibility on the teachers' side, and causes the students to regard their teachers as friends who are interested in their particular needs and welfare. The teachers are the companions and advisers of the students and seek to guide them in the highest ideals of Christian womanhood and manhood.

Religious Influence

Louisburg College is a Methodist College which strives to place the Christian development of its students as one of the foremost objectives of the college program. Hence the administration does all in its power to create a congenial atmosphere which is conducive to the development of Christian character. To this end the College insists that the faculty be of contagious Christian character and do all in its power toward developing and maintaining Christian standards on the campus.

In furtherance of this central aim, courses are given in Bible, in Church history and basic beliefs, and in fundamental methods of church work.

The presence in Louisburg of well-established churches of three leading denominations affords opportunity for training in worship and the practice of the most approved methods of church work.

Under the guidance of the Director of Religious Activities, in addition to the requirements of Chapel attendance, students are urged to join in work of some form of church activity.

Christian Associations

The Young Men's Christian Association and the Young Women's Christian Associations are the interdenominational Christian groups of the college. Their purpose is to emphasize the Christian way of life in the midst of educational pursuits and college activities. Membership is open to any young man or woman in sympathy with Christian ideals. Its program consists of weekly services of worship and social activity in the interest of building on the campus a Christian atmosphere. A faculty advisory committee assists in the work of the organization.

The college observes a Religious Emphasis Week each year at which time a visiting preacher conducts meetings daily. The students are urged to attend and take an active part.

Chapel

A chapel service is held on Tuesday and on Friday mornings. The trustees and the faculty regard the chapel exercises as an integral part of the work of the college; accordingly, regularity of attendance is required of all students.

Members of the faculty and student organizations frequently plan programs and the ministers of the town and nearby communities are invited to present religious messages.

Students who continue to absent themselves will not be allowed to represent the college in any way and will be required to appear before the Student Counselling Committee.

The Orientation Program

The orientation program assists the student in adjusting himself to college community living and to increased responsibilities for himself and his progress, and in orienting himself as an intelligent citizen.

Of great importance in the orientation program is the Junior Orientation Period which consists of:

(1) Informal gatherings, lectures, and various student activities which induct the juniors into the group and acquaint them with the customs and traditions of the college. Physical and Mental tests are given during this period, and the result of these tests provide the faculty with information essential to effective care and guidance.

(2) Library talks which are conducted by the librarian with small groups of juniors. The students explore the facilities of the library and are initiated into the use of the card catalogue, reference books, reserve system and other features.

(3) Discussions with the juniors which are led by well-qualified persons and center on topics such as: objectives of college education, how to plan one's time, techniques of study, personal hygiene, dormitory life and behavior, marking system, and explanation of the course of study.

(4) Chapel and assembly talks which are given by members of the faculty and by students throughout the first few weeks of the fall semester on the various problems of the campus.

The Guidance Program

In order to cultivate a closer personal relationship between the student and the institution, a guidance program has been inaugurated. All officers and teachers of the college take an active part in this program. At registration each student is assigned a faculty adviser. The contacts with his adviser, as well as with the other members of the faculty, give the student an opportunity to discuss his scholastic, vocational, personal and spiritual problems.

Much of individual guidance is given in the important educational experience of choosing courses. The student is helped to consider his own abilities, his present and possible future interests, and his vocational plans. While the number of hours to be elected is prescribed within certain limits, there is some latitude to fit the needs of the individual student. The Student Counselling committee keeps in touch with the student's progress and endeavors to see that he does his work with credit and satisfaction.

College entrance marks an important milestone in the life of every student. For many, it is the first break from home; for all, it means an adjustment to new methods of work and new standards, as well as more complex human relationships. The student is tempted, for instance, to misuse his new freedom. He might find it hard to adjust himself to sharing a room with a person whom he has never seen before, whose tastes, interests and study habits may be different from his own. This, too, is the period during which life goals, vocational and otherwise, are formed, when new ideas often become disturbing, when permanent values are sought.

Louisburg aims to help each student to make these adjustments and important decisions.

Health Administration

A complete health service is offered students of Louisburg College. A dispensary with a graduate nurse in attendance at all times is maintained for the benefit of the students. Practicing physicians of the town are also available. On the campus are two infirmaries, one for girls, one for boys. Prompt transfer of sick students to the infirmary prevents delay in proper care and insures the health of the college community. In cases of serious illness parents or guardians are notified at once. If they cannot be reached speedily enough in an emergency, the college will make whatever provision is deemed expedient by the consulting physician. Minor cases of illness are cared for in the infirmary.

In a questionnaire sent out to each prospective student, information is requested concerning his health history, that suggestions may be made about medical and surgical care advisable before the student comes to college. Additional examinations may be made whenever needed or requested. Records of these are used for reference when questions concerning the number of hours or courses, the amount of extra-curricular work, the extent of physical activity, and similar problems arise. They also serve as the basis of follow-up work for correcting remediable defects.

Students whose examinations reveal physical defects are excused from the regular course in physical education and are assigned to corrective gymnastics or to sports especially adapted to their needs.

Physical Education

The major aim and objective in physical education is to provide variety of activities in a healthful and pleasant environment, to meet the needs of the college students, and to equip them with skills in sports that they may carry on in their leisure time and after graduation.

The records of the physical examinations of each student are of great value in determining what type of exercises is of most value to the students who have some minor physical defect.

The physical education program is planned to give the young men and the young women varied activities in intramural sports. Games of tennis, softball, volleyball, basketball, soccer, track, horseshoe, ping-pong, baseball, archery and hockey are played during the year. The Girls' Athletic Association gives credit points, and each student who makes 100 points is awarded a certificate for a pin.

Women's Athletic Association

The Girls' Athletic Association awards certificates for pins to its members for meritorious performance in athletics and sports.

Physical Education Club

Girls who show superior aptitudes and who plan to be Physical Education teachers have formed a club for the intensive study and discussion of problems in their field.

Monogram Club

Sponsored by the director of Athletics, the Boys' Monogram Club awards monograms to those who have revealed marked ability in athletic activities. Its aim is to foster superior ideals of sportsmanship.

Social Life and Entertainment

Louisburg is not forgetful of the important part a well balanced social life plays in the right development of its student body. The plan here is peculiarly favorable for a happy social existence. There are distinct advantages to the students in a small college environment as is attested by the genial relationship of the faculty and the students.

The social life at Louisburg is wholesome and democratic. An effort is made by a Social Committee of the faculty to maintain a fair, balanced program of social activities.

Annual Traditions

Certain annual events at the college have become Louisburg traditions, and are anticipated with great pleasure by the students and faculty and friends of the college.

The Reception for new students is held regularly during the orientation period, the first formal function of the school year.

The Home-coming week-end and banquet is held the last week-end in October, and a particular effort is made to have as large a group of Alumnae and Alumni present as possible.

The Christmas party is the annual gathering of the college campus family, complete with tree, Santa Claus, carols, and fun and joy.

The May Day festivities, sponsored by the Athletic Department, is a gala celebration held the first week-end in May, and is particularly attractive to the younger Alumnae and Alumni.

The Commencement program includes the Class Day program on Saturday; the annual Alumnae-Alumni Banquet on Saturday night; Baccalaureate and S.C.A. sermons on Sunday; the President's reception for the seniors, their parents and friends on Sunday afternoon; and the awarding of degrees and honors on Monday morning.

Other traditional activities are:

Class and club entertainments.

Church socials.

Stunt night.

Formal faculty-student dinners.

Movies at the College.

Monthly birthday dinners.

Guest recitals and lectures.

Hospitality week-end.

These events are carefully scheduled throughout the year so as to provide adequate social activities and yet not allow overcrowding of the calendar.

College Publications

The Louisburg College Bulletin is issued in October, December, February, March, April, and June, the March issue being the catalogue number. Its function is to disseminate information and news items about the college, its progress and problems among the former students, friends of the college.

The Acorn is the handbook containing all information especially valuable to new students. It is published by the Student Government Associations and is distributed during the orientation period.

The Oak is the college annual. It is issued by the senior class and contains the usual features of a publication of this character.

Columns is the monthly campus newspaper, which contains certain features of a literary periodical, furnishing a medium for the use of student talent in the fields of writing, reporting, poetry, and the like. It is a five-column, four-page sheet, edited by the students, under the supervision of a faculty adviser.

STUDENT ORGANIZATIONS

Student Government

Student government is an important phase of life on the campus. It is composed of two branches: The Men's Student Government Association and the Women's Student Government Association.

The Women's Student Government Association

The women of the college are members of the Women's Student Government Association. The purpose of this organization is to develop self-control and loyalty, to instill in the women the highest principles of honor and self-development and to enforce such regulations as do not fall exclusively under the province of the administration. The general legislative powers to direct student activities are vested in the Student Council. The Honor System prevails. Each student, as a member of the Association, assumes the authority and the responsibility of governing herself, and assumes the duty of approaching a fellow student in a spirit of helpfulness against the violation of any Student Government regulation. The Dean of Women acts in an advisory capacity with the Student Council.

The Men's Student Government Association

The purpose of the Men's Student Government is to promote the full development of all men through a guidance program worked out under the leadership of the Dean of Men. It emphasizes self-reliance, independent-thinking, and self-government. The importance of honesty and truthfulness is the chief principle upon which the Council functions. Respect for the rights of others in community life is foremost among its teachings.

International Relations Club

The International Relations Club, sponsored by the Department of Social Studies, is organized and directed by the students of the college. The purpose of the organization is to create and further interest in domestic and foreign affairs. The club is affiliated with the International Relations group sponsored by the Carnegie Endowment Fund and receives from this organization books and other material on international affairs.

Commercial Club

This club is open to all students who are regular enrolled students in the Commercial Department. This club provides a means for social contacts within the department and sponsors educational programs pertaining to office practices and equipment.

Glee Club

The Glee Club draws its membership from students with vocal talent. Selections which have wide appeal are studied at its weekly rehearsals, and stress is laid upon tone quality, shading, firmness of attack, phrasing, and interpretation. Concerts are given during the year at various Methodist churches throughout North Carolina, and at the annual session of the North Carolina Conference.

Dramatic Club

The Dramatic Club is composed of students interested in the study of various phases of drama and acting. It sponsors chapel programs and presents one play a semester for the college and the community. Various social activities are provided for its membership. Different phases of drama and acting are discussed at its regular meetings. In order to be eligible for membership a student must have appeared on one play or participated in a play production and attained a scholastic average of "C".

HONOR FRATERNITIES

Phi Theta Kappa

The college provides the necessary furniture for dormitory rooms. All the beds in the dormitories are single. Students should bring with them bed linen, covers, blankets, pillows, and any other articles which would add to the comfort and attractiveness of their college home. Rugs, curtains or draperies, lamps, pictures, and easy chairs are not furnished, and should be supplied by the student if he desires.

Books (new and used) and school supplies may be purchased from the College Book Store.

Tennis shoes are required and may be purchased before coming to Louisburg.

The regulation gymnasium suit is sold at the College Book Store.

Personal funds should be deposited with the College Treasurer.

Keys to all rooms should be turned in to the President's office when students leave the campus for the holidays.

College Costs

Louisburg College is a non-profit institution. Its purpose is to give to young people with an ambition and a worthy purpose, regardless of their financial background, the opportunity to continue their education two years beyond the high school level.

Through the years, thousands of people have given the resources of the college: land, buildings, equipment, operational expenses, and endowment. Likewise, the teachers have given devoted service. Consequently, the college has kept its expenses down to a low-water mark.

The actual cost, however, per student has greatly exceeded the published rates. Taking into consideration, therefore, the cost of the buildings, depreciation, equipment, instruction, maintenance, operational expenses, and room and board with a student body of three hundred and fifty, the cost per student is estimated to be five hundred and seventy-five dollars per year.

There are many parents and guardians who are able and glad to pay this amount. There are others, however, who could not. For those who cannot pay this amount the college grants three forms of aid to meet the financial need of each student: (1) free scholarships, (2) service or labor scholarships, and (3) loans.

SCHOLARSHIPS

The free scholarships will be granted upon the evidence of need by the student's parent or guardian. A labor scholarship of $60.00 will be required of each student receiving the free scholarship. The amount of this free scholarship may not exceed $125.00.

EXPENSES

At the time of submitting the application for admission, if it then seems necessary to secure some financial assistance, the application for scholarship should be presented.

No student of the college need surrender the opportunity the college affords because of financial reasons, provided he is willing to work.

INFORMATION ABOUT SCHOLARSHIPS AND LABOR PLAN

That worthy and ambitious students may earn funds toward their college expenses, Louisburg College has inaugurated a plan of service scholarships whereby each student may earn at least sixty dollars. That a student may remain in college and complete the year's work, an additional service scholarship may be allotted if it is shown to be necessary. This provision also applies to holders of free scholarships.

The application for a memorial or service scholarship must be made on a form prepared by Louisburg College to be filled out and signed when application is made for entrance to the college. In this application the student should apply for the smallest amount of service scholarship necessary to meet his college expenses for the year. If the student wishes to do a good grade of college work in his studies, the student can not do too much work on a service scholarship. But if the student takes three years to complete the course, then the amount of the service scholarship might be greater.

In making application for a service scholarship the student should apply for the work in which he has had experience. Students can not do office work unless they can take dictation and use a typewriter well. All kinds of general work such as kitchen, dining hall, campus, and the like are open to all students, whether they have had training in the work or not.

Appointment to Work

The Director of Labor appoints the students to that kind of work which is best suited to the applicant, so far as this is possible. As the number of positions in each type of work is limited, it is impossible to appoint every student to the form of work for which he may apply. Office and library positions are usually given to second year students who have had some special training here at Louisburg College for this kind of work.

Remuneration for Work

The hourly pay for work is governed by the kind of work done and the skill of the student. This grade is determined by the student's supervisor. A student who evidences the necessary capabilities, may be appointed as a supervisor.

Special Service Scholarships

Individual organizations and many friends of youth give grants of money annually in varying amounts to be allotted to worthy students in the form of service scholarships as the college authorities may deem best.

BEQUESTS TO LOUISBURG COLLEGE

Contributions to Louisburg College are always needed and welcome. These donations may be direct gifts for specific or general purposes, or they may take the form of annuities or any kinds of properties.

Memorial Scholarships

A memorial scholarship established by the gift of an Endowment Fund is one of the most acceptable ways to memorialize the memory and service of a beloved companion, parent, son, or daughter.

Such a fund each year proves a blessing to three: to the donor, to the recipient, and to the beloved one whose life of service is kept in constant memory.
